You have the following rights in relation to this bill of costs

You may be able to have your charges reviewed by the Court. This is called 'detailed assessment.' The procedure is set out in sections 70, 71 and 72 of the Solicitors Act 1974. Your rights to challenge our bill through detailed assessment change depending on how long ago the bill was delivered and whether the bill has been paid.

You have the right to challenge our bill through detailed assessment within 1 month of it being delivered.

Between 1 month and 12 months after the bill is delivered, the Court may permit a detailed assessment but may impose terms or conditions on the assessment.

If more than 12 months has passed since the bill was delivered, the Court will only permit a detailed assessment if there are special circumstances. You have no right to challenge the bill if more than 12 months have passed since the bill was paid.
